

Pacific Region Education Consultancy

2 Weeks Mandarin Study Tour in Beijing and Tianjin

In Cooperation ,With TIANJIN TIANSHI COLLEGE , Website: www.tianshi.edu.cn www.tiens.com

OR TIANJIN UNIVERSITY OF COMMERCE, Website: www.tjcu.edu.cn

Email : lilykong1963@gmail.com Lily Kong of Pacific Region Education Consultancy (PREC) is the Authorised Sole Recruitment Representative of Tianjin Tianshi College (www.tianshi.edu.cn) and Tianjin University of Commerce (www.tjcu.edu.cn)

Day 1 .AM

Arrive in Tianjin Tianshi College. Visit nearby Swan Lake Resort and main street of Wuqing. Have an introductory understanding of Chinese Culture.

Day 1. PM

Course: Listening Practice in Mandarin

Day 2. AM

Course: Speaking Practice in Mandarin

Day 2.PM

Cultural Activities: Introduction of Tianjin culture, folk customs, folk arts, including Yangliuqing New Year Pictures.

Day 3. AM

Cultural Activities: Introduction of Tianjin culture, Painted sculpture of Clay Figure Zhang, Giant Wei Kites.

Day 3. PM

Course: Reading on 600 years of China's history, and culture, and its impact on the development of China.

Day 4. AM

Course: Reading and Comprehension Practice

Day 4. PM

Visit the Economic Construction of Tianjin Binhai New Area , Tianjin High Tech Industrial Park and understand its development plan.

Day 5. AM

Course: Listening and Speaking Practice

Day 5. PM

Visit Tien's Group Ecology Science and Technology Park, and understand the characteristics of each Development Zone of Subordinate Districts and Counties in Tianjin.

Day 6 AM & PM

Visit Tianjin Commercial Street: Heping Road, Binjiang Street. In the evening, visit Haihe Park , an ancient culture and food street and beautiful Haihe's river.

Day 7. AM & PM

Chinese Cooking session. Sharing of food from the participants of the different countries.

Day 8. AM

Course: Listening Practice in Mandarin

Day 8. PM

Cultural Activities: Calligraphy

Day 9. AM

Course: Simple Chinese word or pictorial Chinese words.

Day 9. PM

Cultural Activities: Chinese Painting

Day 10. AM

Course: Speaking Practice in Mandarin

Day 10. PM

Cultural Activities: Chinese Martial Arts, Kung Fu, Sword Fighting

Day 11. AM

Course: Reading in Mandarin

Day 11. PM

Cultural Activities: Chinese Folk Songs and Dance.

Day 12. AM

Course: Oral Comprehension Practice

Day 12. PM

Cultural Activities: Local Opera and Beijing Opera.

Day 13. AM

Graduation Ceremony. Chinese Folk Singing, Dance, Kung Fu, Sword Fighting, Chinese painting and calligraphy competition. Prize winning awards

Day 13. PM

After lunch, visit Badaling's Great Wall, followed by the Beijing Municipal District, Visiting the facilities for the 2008 Olympic Games: Bird's Nest, Water Cube. Enjoy authentic Duck Dinner.

Day 14. AM & PM

Visit the Forbidden City Museum, Summer Palace and Wang Fu Jing Street.

Day 15.

Home Sweet Home.

• Aims and Features:

- 1) Morning language classes are designed to build a good foundation of Mandarin Chinese conversational skills.
- 2) Afternoon electives designed to provide different perspectives of Chinese culture including TaiQi Quan, Chinese calligraphy and painting, Chinese cooking and more.
- 3) Weekend cultural activities leading students to experience China's cultural heritage, the Chinese life-style and many chances to meet new friends abroad.
- 4) Immersion programs encourage students to apply their acquired language skills (speaking, listening, and writing) in real life. To name a few, they will practice how to negotiate in the market with the knowledge learned in their Mandarin language classes, cook their own Chinese food with what they get from the market, present performances featuring Chinese culture and record their experience in China by writing letters to friends or parents

Arrangement

Language skills training: Besides Chinese language core classes, language training on real conversational situation will be given.

Afternoon electives: Taiji Quan, Chinese cooking, Chinese calligraphy and painting, and Chinese songs.

Weekend cultural activities: Weekend tours include the Great Wall, Tiananmen Square and the Forbidden City, Summer Palace, and Temple of Heaven and Beijing's famous markets and Tianjin City Tour, Tianjin Shopping district, Famous Tianjin residences and temples. Other activities include sports games, cooking contest and performances by students at the end of the program.

Total Fees

Usually US$1500 NOW : US$1200!!

Everything that the students need during their stay in Beijing is included in the program fees which includes: insurance, airport pickup and drop-off, accommodation, meals per day (breakfast ,lunch and dinner), Chinese classes, afternoon electives, domestic transportation and entrance tickets to different tours and activities.

What to bring?

Pocket money, first-aid medicine, etc.

Afternoon electives: Visits to international companies example Nokia, Nestle, and others. Learn Taiji Quan, Chinese cooking, Chinese calligraphy and painting, and Chinese songs.

Weekend cultural activities: Weekend tours include the Great Wall, Tian'an Men Square and the Forbidden City, Summer Palace, and Temple of Heaven and Beijing's famous markets and Tienjin City Tour, Tienjin Shopping district, Famous Tienjin residences and temples. Other activities include sports games, cooking contest and performances by students at the end of the programme.

VISA

When you have enrolled in the program, the visa documents (a Letter of Invitation and JW202 Form) will be sent to you.

Please contact your nearest Chinese Embassy or Consulate for the Visa Application Form and processing fee.

Bring the following documents to the Embassy or Consulate:

1. Visa Application Form (completed)
2. Your valid passport (it must be valid for a minimum of 6 months and for the duration of the program)
3. A copy of "Letter of Invitation" (provided by ISC).
4. Copy of the JW202 Visa Form (provided by ISC).
5. Relevant visa application fee
6. 2 Passport size photos

For foreign students who applied for short-term courses should apply for F-Visa and X-Visa for foreign students who applied for 1 year/long term courses.

For more details, please contact Lily Kong at 65-93627018 or email lilykong1963@gmail.com