Day 2 Seminar Topic: Singapore as a Global City – Definition, Challenges and Opportunities

And City Tour - Orchard Road, Clarke Quay, Harbourfront

On the first day, experience the many exciting faces of our fascinating city! Contrast the old and the new icons of Singapore, from the Merlion, a fascinating half lion half fish statue overlooking the Marina Bay to the Esplanade - Theatres On The Bay, a magnificent icon representing Singapore's arts and culture.

Day 3 Seminar Topic : Singapore's Economic Outlook

Visit Singapore's Financial District, home to many banks and financial institutions, is packed with soaring skyscrapers and the newly built marina Bays Resort that lend Singapore its distinctive skyline.

And while we are in the financial district, we will drop by Lau Pa Sat , jostling with the white collar office executives working in the financial district for delicious local food.

Day 4 Seminar Topic : Keeping Singapore culturally vibrant

And Visit to Little India, Chinatown, Malay village

Experience Singapore's cultural heritage. Chinatown Heritage Centre takes you back in history to the time when Chinese immigrants settled in Singapore and the struggles they faced.

Little India, intense with the aroma of spices and the swirl of colourful sari fabric, forms the backdrop for an afternoon of discovery into the life of the Indian community in Singapore.

The last stop for the day - Malay Village where the museum and re-creation of a kampong house brings you to a time in the past.

Day 5 Seminar Topic: Infrastructure -Transportation in Singapore

Visit to Singapore Government Organisations - Economic Development Board and Singapore Tourism Board

Day 6 Seminar Topic : Singapore's open door policy to talent

Leave the hustle and bustle of the city to learn about the flora and fauna of Singapore. Visit Singapore's Botanical Gardens and the world famous Singapore zoo.

Day 7 Visit Sentosa Island

Spend the afternoon and evening on the island of Sentosa, a popular recreation venue. Soak in history at the Images of Singapore, look at marine life in a moving tunnel at Underwater World,

Be dazzled by the magic of the moving waters, accompanied by lights, songs and music in "Songs of the Sea"

Day 8 Visit theme park , Universal Studios and the Resort World Singapore at Sentosa.

The park is 20 hectares (49 acres) in size, occupying the easternmost part of the 49 hectares (120 acres) Resorts World Sentosa. There are a total of 24 attractions, of which 18 are original or specially adapted for the park. It consists of seven uniquely themed zones which surround a lagoon. Each zone is based on a blockbuster movie or television show, featuring their own unique attractions, character appearances, dining and shopping areas. The park features the world's tallest Dueling roller coaster based on the hit television show Battlestar Galactica, a castle from the world of Shrek and Monster Rock, a live musical show by the infamous Universal Monsters as well as celebrity Look-alikes. The park also includes about 30 restaurants and food carts together with 20 unique retail stores and carts located around the park.

The park is home to the world's biggest single collection of DreamWorks Animation theme park attractions, occupying 2 of the 7 themed zones, namely based on "Far Far Away" from Shrek and the island of "Madagascar" from the computer-animated movie Madagascar
